

"A Spirituality of Race for Children and Youth (and Those Who Love Them)"

Instructor

Tony Peterson

July 4th - 8th, 2022

Afternoons

This course will explore the history and development of race in North American contexts, including the role of Christianity. It will demonstrate the importance and execution of race conversation with children and youth. It will include personal practices to engage children, youth, and adults in productive work toward racial justice.

Course will be taught in person at Vancouver School of Theology (Vancouver), and via Zoom for distance students (certificate & degree students must connect synchronously if studying via Zoom).

Leaders Cohort Series

for those registered in VST's "A Spirituality of Race for Children and Youth (and Those Who Love Them)"

This 3-session Series accompanies those who are attending VST Summer School course "A Spirituality of Race for Children and Youth (and those Who Love Them)". The goal of this free cohort series is for those, as VST course participants, to actively engage in acquiring knowledge and to learn how to transform our individual behaviours. Leaders will journey together in learning and practice in engaging in acts of anti racism and work to restoring right relationship. A free copy of Dr. Ibram X Kendi's new book 'How to Raise an Antiracist' is included for Leaders Cohort Series participants.

The Leaders Cohort Series is facilitated by VST Course Instructor, Tony Peterson, along with United Church of Canada staff members, Adele Halliday, Amy Crawford and Mary Nichol.
